Chorus fund-raiser draws churches together

Many of our chorus members are also church-goers, so it was no surprise that two of them were able to arrange a fund-raiser for their respective churches at one location. Buddy Yarnell and Wes Reed arranged for the Apostolic and Emanuel Lutheran churches to gather together on July 13 to see a special performance of the Gaslight Chorus. Quartets included on the show were "Gaslight Review," from the Fullerton Chapter, "California Crossroads," in which Buddy Yarnell sings tenor, and "Four Fifteen," which includes Bryan Forbes, Larry and John Gassman, and Adam Kitt.

A free-will offering was taken up at the show and a large percentage of it went to one of the churches' favorite charities, the Lutheran World Hunger Fund.

2008 Christmas show

Our 2008 Christmas show will be presented on December 13. Of course, we will have an outstanding guest performer and a few small surprises as well. Our show attendance has grown every year and we expect this year to be a sell-out. Flyers will be in the mail soon. When you receive yours, don't delay; order your tickets early for best seating.

Birthday party a real blast

We don't just perform on shows, we also do parties, business meetings, and any other venue where a chorus is just the right ticket. On July 18, the Gaslight Chorus appeared at a backyard party in celebration of the 78th birthday of Danella Hawkins. She, along with many friends from her church, have been avid supporters of our chorus since our first public performance.

This was an intimate setting and a fun way for us to be active in our community. If you have a social event that needs some good, clean musical entertainment, please look us up. We offer musical excellence at a reasonable price.

First appearance on youth benefit show

Big shows are lots of fun, especially when you get to share the stage with an international champion chorus and two district champion quartets. Such was the case when the Gaslight Chorus performed on the August 16 "Harmony Under the Stars" show sponsored by our neighboring chapter in Fullerton.

This was the first time that the Gaslight Chorus has appeared on this stage, and what a joy it was to share that stage with such talent!
